Non-Profit Help (www.Non-ProfitHelp.com) has been selected to run more than 40+ seminars on behalf of the Virginia Society of CPAs.

The Richmond-based organization picked NPH because of its extensive background and knowledge executing successful seminars.

NPH will handle the daily management of these meetings in various locations along with management of the onsite certification process, coordinating speaker set ups and meeting logistics.

Non-Profit Help has a track record of successfully conducting a variety of functions including seminars, conventions, trade shows, sporting outings, scholarship & fundraising events and retreats since 1994.

With offices in Alexandria and Richmond, VA, Non-Profit Help has energized meeting attendance for non-profits throughout the United States.
